MYTH:
It is acceptable to use my personal stethoscope on a patient with C. difficile as long as I wipe it off afterwards.

FACT:
Use a dedicated disposable stethoscope* to reduce risk of transmission.

If a personal stethoscope must be used, it should be wiped down with an AF3 Sani-Cloth after use.

Please let the patient’s nurse know if a disposable stethoscope is not available in the room.