

PPE Requirements for Transport

Clean hands before and after transport and patient contact
Instruct patient to clean hands before transport

Standard precautions include universal surgical mask and eye protection

Rev. October 8th, 2020

Isolation	Signage	Patient	Healthcare Worker (Routine Transport)	Healthcare Worker (Direct Patient Contact)
Novel Respiratory		Clean hospital gown, surgical mask, cover body with a clean sheet Child that cannot mask: cover patient or crib with a clean sheet, as tolerated	N95 /face shield (or PAPR) Bring PPE transport pack *Usual path of travel acceptable No special clean or elevator closure required	N95/face shield (or PAPR), gown, gloves
Airborne		Clean hospital gown surgical mask Child that cannot mask: cover patient or crib with a clean sheet, as tolerated	Standard Precautions	Standard Precautions
Droplet		Clean hospital gown surgical mask Child that cannot mask: cover patient or crib with a clean sheet, as tolerated	Standard Precautions	Standard Precautions
Contact		Clean hospital gown, surgical mask cover body with a clean sheet	Standard Precautions	Gown, gloves
Enteric Contact		Clean hospital gown, surgical mask cover body with a clean sheet	Standard Precautions Clean hands with soap/water after transport	Gown, gloves Clean hands with soap/water after patient contact & transport