

Sinks and other drains can become contaminated with bacteria. The water splash can contain this bacteria and can contaminate objects stored around the sink.

Steps YOU can take to help prevent this risk:

- Do not place patient care supplies or medications on countertops or mobile surfaces that are within 3ft of sinks
- Do not discard patient waste down sinks including nutritional beverages

