

PROTECTIVE PRECAUTIONS

LOW-RISK IMMUNOCOMPROMISED ISOLATION

Clean Hands

before and after entering room

Visitors ~ See Nurse before entering

PATIENTS in LOW-RISK IMMUNOCOMPROMISED Isolation

- S/he does not require a private room.
- Standard recovery precautions
- S/he is allowed to participate in group activities, such as use of the teen room, school room, and playroom and AllStars technology room.

STAFF Caring for Patients in LOW-RISK IMMUNOCOMPROMISED Isolation

- Clean hands:
 - Before and after touching a patient
 - Before and after touching a patients' surroundings
 - Before and after IV access or procedures
 - Between dirty and clean tasks
 - After touching your face, nose, hair or personal device (e.g. pager, phone)
- Instruct families and visitors to clean their hands before entering and exiting the patient's room.

GENERAL INDICATIONS for LOW-RISK IMMUNOCOMPROMISED Isolation

- Most patients admitted for routine chemotherapy.
- Most patients receiving a solid organ transplant